Reading Newsletter – Autumn 1 2021

Respect everyone; Grow together

Reading at Chapel Street Community Primary School

Take a sneak peek at our wonderful new school library! We are so proud of everyone who has been involved in creating this magical space. All children will begin accessing the library next half term. There will be an official launch organised very soon and following this parents / carers will also have an opportunity to visit

Bronze Award

Chapel Street have been working very hard towards achieving the One Education's Reading Award which is a Reading quality standard for schools. I am extremely pleased to share that we have been successful in achieving One Education's Reading Bronze Award

Mural competition winners:

Huge congratulations to Zynah and Maryam in 6A for winning the mural competition! Well done girls! This beautiful mural will be displayed at a central location within the library. We can't wait to have you all visit.

Have you read some of our recommended reads?

'Amulet: the Stonekeeper: Stonekeeper' Kazu Kibuishi
Aimed at: Year 5 & 6 readers.

Graphic novel star Kazu Kibuishi creates a world of terrible, man-eating demons, a mechanical rabbit, a giant robot--and two ordinary children on a life-or-death mission. After the tragic death of their father, Emily and Navin move with their mother to the home of her deceased great-grandfather, but the strange house proves to be dangerous. Before long, a sinister creature lures the kids' mom through a door in the basement. Em and Navin, desperate not to lose her, follow her into an underground world inhabited by demons, robots, and talking animals.

'Me, My Dad and the End of the Rainbow' Benjamin Dean
Aimed at: Year 4 & 5 readers.

Archie just wants everything to go back to normal. Everyone is acting weird and he's over it. He just wants his mum and dad to live together again. This heart-warming book charts Archie and his friends' journey to try and fix his family.

'Llama on A Mission' Anabelle Sami
Aimed at: Year 3 & 4 readers.

In the latest book in this hilarious series, Yasmin has just found her voice, and she's determined to use her confidence to help her friends. But with Levi her loud llama guardian around wrecking havoc, Yasmin might find it harder than she thinks!

'An Alien in the Jam Factory' by Scooter McLay
Aimed at: Year 1 & 2 readers

The main character in this hilarious book is Scooter McLay. Scooter has cerebral palsy which affects how his body moves, but his brain thinks of ideas at the speed of lightning! He spends every day inventing fantastic things for his family's jam factory but he's lonely. Then, a tiny alien crashes through the window...

'A Way with Wild Things' by Larissa Theule
Aimed at: EYFS readers

This wonderful book introduces Poppy, who loves bugs and who, just like them, likes to blend into her surroundings. One day, a special bug lands on a birthday cake and Poppy comes out of the background to see it. Poppy learns that it's ok to stand out in the crowd sometimes, just like the bugs she loves.
